

The Janesville Daily Gazette.

VOLUME 25

Entered at the Post Office at Janesville Wis., as second-class matter.

JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1882.

Published Every Evening Except Sunday, at $7 a Year.

NUMBER 278

NEWS OF THE DAY.

A Sharp Fight in the Senate Over the Omaha Land Grant Bill.

The Bills Introduced in the Assembly.

State Senator Hudd will endeavor to Draw $500 Pay.

A Horrible Tragedy Enacted Yesterday at Oshkosh.

A New Administration Paper in Washington.

Other Interesting State and Miscellaneous News Items.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Special to the Gazette.

MAIDSON, Feb. 1.—In Assembly bills were introduced looking to an enlargement of the two insane asylums, and and Milwaukee county hospital.

For the erection of an asylum for chronic insane, at Chippewa Falls.

Increasing the maximum punishment for drunkenness to fifty dollars fine, or sixty days' imprisonment.

Allowing patent inside newspapers to have the benefit of sixty dollars for publication of laws.

For punishment of murder in the first degree by hanging, or imprisonment for life.

To regulate the sale of liquors, which is substantially the Nebraska license law.

Senate.

In the Senate Simpson's bill repealing anti-treat law, was ordered to a third reading.

A sharp fight occurred on the motion to suspend the rules and pass substitutes to the Omaha land grant bill, the amendment being that said company shall pay laborers of the defunct air line road. The motion to suspend was rejected, the necessary two-thirds failing to vote affirmatively. The amendment was finally ordered printed.

THE ASSASSIN.

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 31.—District Attorney Corkhill says that Scoville is a worse crank than Guiteau if he thinks that the American people will answer his address and contribute money. Mr. Reed holds a very different opinion as to Mr. Scoville's address, and says: "I have done about all I can do. Mr. Scoville's appeal states the thing very well this morning. I have done all I could for Guiteau in an honorable and gentlemanly way. I think that appeal of Mr. Scoville's is a good, manly utterance. It may not amount to anything. There are people who, I believe, would like to help him, but are afraid. The public clamor demands this man's execution."

Both officers and privates at the Washington barracks complain of the service required of them in doing guard duty at the jail over Guiteau, which they consider unnecessary now. Said one of the officers to a local reporter: "I wish that you would put in a flaming paragraph, to the effect that the small-pox hospital is only 150 yards from the jail. Our men have to march back and forth by it every day. There are 500 people in this garrison, and suppose they should bring the small-pox here! If you print something about it, the secretary of war and other people up-town will see it. If they want to guard Guiteau, why not bring him down here?"

What Physicians say.

SAN LEANDRO, Cal., January 6, 1857. Dr. B. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.: DEAR SIR—I have employed your "Pleasant Purgative Pellets" in my practice for the last four years. I now use no other alternative or cathartic medicines in all chronic derangements of the stomach, liver, & bowels. I knew of nothing that equals them.

J. A. MILLER, M. D.

A COLLAPSED ORGAN.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—A change in the management of The National Republican, of this city, it is understood, is about to occur, by which it will become an administration paper. Its owner (Mr. T. J. Brady, of star route notoriety,) made an offer to certain New York parties, friends of President Arthur, and they immediately accepted it. The transfer is to be made next Saturday.

In the meantime the new management will look about for a new editor-in-chief, Mr. Gorham, the present editor going out with Mr. Brady. Frank Hatton, assistant postmaster-general, has been mentioned for the place, but it is not thought likely that he would take the position, if it were offered to him. Gorham's stalwartism was not questioned but friends of the Administration thought him indiscreet. The paper was also strongly objected to as being the recognized organ of the star route ring.

GARFIELD'S PHYSICIANS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The physicians attended the late President have decided not to present a bill for services. Dr. Bliss, who has the matter in charge virtually, will prepare a statement of services, showing how long they were in attendance and what time they spent daily on duty and with what diligence they served.

The other physicians will be shown the statement for such indorsement as they wish to make upon it. Dr. Bliss says they will take whatever Congress offers them, without reference to what they would charge ordinarily for such attendance. He said he had not made any charge upon his books.

TWO ORGANS.

Regulate first the stomach, second the liver; especially the first, so as to perform their functions perfectly, and you will remove at least nineteen-twentieths of all the ills that mankind is heir to, in this or any other climate. Hop Bitters is the only thing that will give perfectly healthy, natural action to these two organs.

MISCREANT'S PUNISHMENT.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Jan. 31.—News is just received from Logansport, Ind., that on Saturday night, a tramp named William Steele called on Mrs. Buell, living twelve miles from Logansport, for supper. Finding the woman alone, he outraged her person and fled. Neighbors immediately pursued, caught, and, without delay hung him. Then they then piled brush about him and burned the body past recognition. The Sheriff yesterday took possession of the body and turned it over to the Coroner.

MISS PARTINGTON SAY.

Don't take any of the quack rostrums, as they are regrettful to the human cistern; but put your trust in Hop Bitters, which will cure general dilapidation, habits and all comic diseases. They saved Isaac from a severe extract of tripod fever. They are the ne plus unum of medicines.

ANOTHER FIRE.

Special to the Gazette.

LOCKPORT, N. Y., Feb. 1.—The largest flouring mills in the State, those of Thornton & Chester, Arnold & Little, and Oliver & Gibson, turned early this morning. Loss $100,000. Assistant Chief Engineer E. G. Woods was cut off by the fire, and jumping from the sixth story was instantly killed. Several other firemen were seriously injured.

SHIPPING GOLD.

Special to the Gazette.

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—Eighteen hundred thousand in gold was shipped for Europe this morning for the London markets.

TOO FANTASTIC.

Some would-be Byrons look on with disgust at the rhymes of Eclectic Oil "poet;" but we have the best article known to the world,

And intend that all persons shall know it.

It cures coughs, colds, asthma and catarrh.

Bronchitis and complaints of that kind; it does not cost much, though rheumatism it cures.

Tis best Oil in the world you can find. Sold by A. J. Roberts, and Sherer & Co.

BIENNIAL SESSIONS.

MADISON, Jan. 31—All doubt about the expected contest over the biennial sessions amendments is now at an end. Senator Hudd appeared before Secretary Timme this afternoon and demanded $500 as the amount of his salary for the present session of the Legislature. Secretary Timme, with the Attorney General at his back, declined to draw a warrant for more than $350, holding that this is an annual session, and that the increase of salary does not take effect until a biennial Legislature is elected.

Senator Hudd declares he will immediately apply to the Supreme Court for a writ of mandamus compelling the secretary to show cause why he refuses to allow members of the Legislature but to $350. This will this much vexed question be finally settled one way or another and by a competent tribunal, after a full hearing. Senator Hudd is now engaged in the preparation of the necessary petition.

Both officers and privates at the Washington barracks complain of the service required of them in doing guard duty at the jail over Guiteau, which they consider unnecessary now. Said one of the officers to a local reporter: "I wish that you would put in a flaming paragraph, to the effect that the small-pox hospital is only 150 yards from the jail. Our men have to march back and forth by it every day. There are 500 people in this garrison, and suppose they should bring the small-pox here! If you print something about it, the secretary of war and other people up-town will see it. If they want to guard Guiteau, why not bring him down here?"

What Physicians say.

SAN LEANDRO, Cal., January 6, 1857. Dr. B. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.: DEAR SIR—I have employed your "Pleasant Purgative Pellets" in my practice for the last four years. I now use no other alternative or cathartic medicines in all chronic derangements of the stomach, liver, & bowels. I knew of nothing that equals them.

J. A. MILLER, M. D.

A TRIPLE TRAGEDY.

OSHKOSH, Wis., Jan. 31.—Robert Benedict this morning, knocked his wife down, slashed his 4-year-old boy in the abdomen with a razor, and then, locking himself in a closet, cut his own throat. He was found in a pool of blood, but had failed to cut his wind pipe or any important artery, and will recover. The child is badly cut, but the result of his injuries is uncertain. Benedict is now in jail. Cause jealousy.

Notting the Effects.

R. Gibbs, of Buffalo, N. Y., writes: "Hearing your BURDICK BLOOD BITTERS favorably spoken of, I was induced to watch their effects, and find that in chronic diseases of the blood, liver and kidneys, your bitters have been signalized with success. I have used them myself with best results, for torpidity of the liver; and in the case of a friend of mine suffering from dropsy, the effect was marvelous." Price $1.00, trial size 10 cents.

Sold by A. J. Roberts and Sherer & Co.

THE GARFIELD MONUMENT.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The physicians attended the late President have decided not to present a bill for services. Dr. Bliss, who has the matter in charge virtually, will prepare a statement of services, showing how long they were in attendance and what time they spent daily on duty and with what diligence they served.

For sale by A. J. Roberts and Sherer & Co.

THE GARFIELD MONUMENT.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Secretary Hunt has written a circular letter to the objects and men of the United States navy, commanding their attention to the circular of the Society of the Army of the Cumberland in reference to erecting a monument to the memory of the late President James A. Garfield in the public square of the city of Washington.

HOW WOMEN WOULD VOTE.

Were women allowed to vote, every woman in the land who has used Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" would vote it to be an unfailing remedy for diseases peculiar to her sex. By druggists.

GUARD AGAINST ANY LUNG OR THROAT DISEASE. USE HALE'S HONEY OF HORSEHORN AND TAR.

PIKE'S TOOTHPASTE DROPS cure in one minute.

MILTON JUNCTION.

The Mission Band held their public session as advertised at the S. D. Church on Sunday evening last and were greeted with a fine audience. The literary exercises were quite interesting as a whole, a few being worthy of special mention, among which should be mentioned the oration of Mr. O. S. Mills, entitled "Mr. Tabor," which although delivered with some faultiness and hesitation, was yet listened to with eager attention making a good impression. The recitation entitled "Tom's Come Home," by Miss Dolly Babcock, was rendered with excellent taste, naturalness, and clearness of diction which characterizes all her readings and places her easily in the front rank of our best readers. As a whole, a few being worthy of special mention, among which should be mentioned the oration of Mr. O. S. Mills, entitled "Mr. Tabor," which although delivered with some faultiness and hesitation, was yet listened to with eager attention making a good impression. The recitation entitled "Tom's Come Home," by Miss Dolly Babcock, was rendered with excellent taste, naturalness, and clearness of diction which characterizes all her readings and places her easily in the front rank of our best readers.

"I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with Disease Lungs will be induced to take DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laugh at my friends, thinking that my case was incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when, to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to-day I feel in better spirits than I have had the past three years.

"I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with Disease Lungs will be induced to take DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. I have taken two bottles, and can positively say that it has done more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sickness. My cough has almost entirely disappeared, and I shall soon be able to go to work." Sold by druggists.

Mr. A. W. Merrifield sold his crop of Spanish tobacco last Friday to Earl and Maltese, for 13 cents in 2 grades.

Clark Brothers received several carloads of coal, last week, and are now ready to supply customers with anything in that line.

Mr. George A. Crandall and Miss Belle Southwick were united in bonds matrimonial at the home of the bride on Monday of last week, Rev. N. Wardner officiating. The young couple represent two of our worthiest families, and are entitled to, and will receive, the hearty congratulations and well wishes of the community.

Rev. M. S. Wardner occupied his father's pulpit at the new church on Saturday morning last, with a detailed report of his last summer's work in the mission field in Iowa and Minnesota.

Prof. J. B. Estee, principal of the graded schools of Woodstock, Ill., spent a day or two with his parents here last week.

Mr. George Mills has severed his connection with the Oshkosh house, with whom he has been working for some years, and entered the employ of the new carriage firm just opening up in the old Doty stand in Janesville. His wife is still living in a very precarious condition, with little or no hope of recovery.

Mr. F. C. Mahony, of Sheffield, Ill., is visiting his mother and friends here this week.

Don't forget the donation for Elder Dunn at Morgan's hall, this evening.

Miss M. L. Burdick left for Madison to commence her work for the session in the comparing room.

Mr. Wm. Tilton and wife has spent two weeks visiting relatives at Berlin, Wis.

A. P. Nickolson the Edgerton dentist, still make this point on Tuesdays, and is generally full of business.

Hon. S. C. Carr was elected Master of the State grange at its late session in Milwaukee. This is a compliment of which Mr. Carr may well feel justly proud.

Rev. N. Wardner occupied the pulpit of the First Congregational church in the city of Janesville, on Sunday last.

A gang of fifteen men commenced work on the new warehouse here on Tuesday morning.

We seldom deal in personalities, and one in last week's items from our neighboring contemporary was too heavy for us to tackle; we leave it for the public to digest. We feel wounded.

NOT TO BE SPNEEZED AT.

American distillation of with hazel, American pine, Canada fir, marigold and clover blossom, called Sanford's Radical Cure for Catarrh. A few doses instantly relieve the most violent sneezing or head cold, stop all watery discharges from the nose and eyes, cure headache and nervousness, and banish all danger of fever. Complete treatment for one dollar.

FAIRFIELD.

Wait for it! An exhibition will be given by the members of the Literary society, in the church at this place, on Friday evening, February 10. Miss Teetschorn, of Johnstown, a young lady who is well known to be an accomplished player, and a successful teacher of music, has been secured as organist. Admission 15 cents. We desire to say also, that the society is under the efficient leadership of B. H. Welch, and a first class entertainment, full of fact, fun and fancy, is promised. Its design is to educate as well as amuse. Come one, come all. For full particulars notice the small bills.

OVER 200,000 HOGES have been sold. Send for catalogue to Bordens, Selleck & Co., General Agents, Chicago, Ill.

3

JOHNSTOWN.

—Mr. E. G. Newhall left here last week for Montello, where he is to establish a bank of deposit and exchange. Mr. A. E. Morse, we believe, is to manage it. May success attend them.

Mr. N. Cole has gone on a trip to Iowa to visit his son Harrison.

An oyster supper was held at the house of Mr. John Zauhl last Wednesday evening, for the benefit of the church at Old Johnstown. A large and pleasant company assembled, and the proceeds were quite satisfactory, and all felt that it was a good place to go.

Quite a number are making arrangements to attend Gough's lecture.

Rev. I. S. Leavitt gave a very interesting lecture at the church last Monday evening. Subject, "Science and Life." Though there was not a large audience but those who did attend were amply repaid.

At the examination at the close of the first half of the present term of school the following named pupils averaged above 90 per cent: Miss Julian Morse, Willie Pember, C. L. Groesbeck, H. B. Groesbeck. Those who averaged 80 per cent and over: Miss Mary Hall, James Haight, I. J. Fletcher, James McGowan, John Robinson, C. O'Maley.

A bell for the church is now being talked

THE GAZETTE.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 1.

The circulation of the GAZETTE is larger than the combined circulation of any newspaper in Rock county.

RUTH AND BOAZ.

There's a glowing flush in the eastern sky; The old farm wagons lumbering by.
Nor risk nor shock must the good man leave— Behold! to-night is Thanksgiving eve.

The Boaz stops at his cottage door, And thus he reckons his goodly store:

"There is wealth of kernel and wealth of root, And beasts fore-quartered and yellow fruit,

"And gold ead crested with silken foam, All gathered in for the harvest-home."

Sweet Ruth comes tripping along the street; With smile denude she Boaz greet;

"Well fay ye, Boaz, with sand and loam; I see the harvest, but not the home."

"Twas a simple maiden that spoke, forsooth Ruth looked at Boaz, he looked at Ruth.

II.

The bells ring out with a lusty pull— Thanksgiving morn and the church is full.

"Thanks—" cries the parson, with lifted hands— "Thanks for the increase of all our lands.

"We give Thee thanks for the corn and oil, Thanks for the fruitage that comes of toil;

"Thanks for the mercies we can not name, The ills that went and the joys that came;

"And, brethren, now, ere we rise and sing, Let's thank the Lord for the dearest thing:

"The one among all our blessings rare For which the most in our hearts we care;

"Search ye, brethren, in mind and thought, For the one great gift that the year has brought."

"Amen!" cries Boaz, with voice of youth; But the parson staves, for he looks at Ruth.

Harper's Weekly.

THE HOBBS' THANKSGIVING DINNER.

"Ann, I've invited the Trumans to dinner on Thanksgiving."

"David! How could you?"

"Why? Tain't the first time by a good many that they've eaten dinner here."

"I know it, David. But that was when they were poor and plain like ourselves. They've got so grand and put on so many airs now that I don't feel the same when I'm with 'em."

"They're no grander than ever they were," answered David, indignantly, "and they don't put on any airs, either. Because they live in a fine house and have plenty of money is no reason their old friends and neighbors should slight 'em."

"That sounds just like a man!" said Ann, with great disgust. "I don't want to slight 'em providin' they don't want to be slighted. I think just as much of John and Laury Trumans' ever I did. But they've been to Europe—"

"I don't care if they've been to Africa," returned David. "it's no reason we should slight 'em."

"But they've seen the Queen's horses and carriage," continued Ann.

"I don't care if they've kissed the Pope's toe," said the incorrigible David.

"My! I hope they hain't!" exclaimed the horrified Ann.

"They're the same old two and six-pence they always was," continued David, "and they're coming here to eat Thanksgiving dinner. And if you eat as though you can't cook good enough for 'em, I'll order dinner from the village hotel."

This was a settler. Ann prided herself on her cooking.

"David Hobbs," said she, "I ain't afraid to cook for Queen Victory. I've cooked for the Trumans many a time, and cooked for other folks just as good; and I've got to hear the first word of fault about my cooking. No, tain't that, David," she continued, "but I ain't got no pretty table-furniture, no nice chiny, nor any of the fixin's that rich folks has."

"Never you mind, Ann," said David, in soft voice, "they'll never miss 'em, so long's the dinner is good, and I know it will be. John and Laury are just as plain as they were when we all lived together in the little log-houses under the hill. You've just got a notion that their money has spoiled 'em. But it hasn't. I wish you could have seen John's eye sparkle when I invited them here. He said he'd been afraid his old neighbors would think he didn't want to belong to them any longer, and in that case, he'd wish old Milton Miles had a' left his money somewhere else."

"Did John say that?" inquired Ann, with raised eyebrows. "Well, then, I don't care. I'll be very happy to have 'em here. If only I had some nice chiny," she added, regretfully.

They were brother and sister—these two—and had lived together ever since David's young wife died, "many and many a year ago," and left him with two little girls to care for. Ann had stepped into the dead woman's place, and kept house for David, and raised the little girls as carefully as though they were her own. Very fond of "Mother Ann," as they called her, were the girls, now pretty, well-behaved young ladies past twenty years of age.

David Hobbs was a farmer, and lived just on the edge of an old-fashioned village, inhabited by old-fashioned contented people. David was in comfortable circumstances, and possessed the respect of the whole community. The Trumans were his neighbors, and as has been intimated, had lately come into the possession of quite a large fortune. They had lived near Hobbs' ever since they came into that section, and many a Thanksgiving and Christmas had the families enjoyed together. And now David Hobbs, regardless of their change of circumstances, had determined to enjoy one of those rare old occasions again.

To describe the flutter and excitement which reigned about the Hobbs' farmhouse during the intervening days would be quite unnecessary. It was the orthodox bustle attendant upon an old-fashioned Thanksgiving occasion. Spicy odors from the kitchen, ominous squawks from the barnyard, and Ann Hobbs busy everywhere. But Ann's face wore not the look of complaisant satisfaction it was wont to wear on such occasions. She was moody and dissatisfied. As she rubbed the old-fashioned silver, she suddenly became mindful that it looked battered, and thin, and old-fashioned compared with the more elegant and modern service of the Trumans. But it was genuine, at all events. No plated ware would Ann Hobbs tolerate. But the dinner dishes!

They were too horrid for any use, all chipped and hair-cracked, and worse than all, of two or three different sets. She did feel, honestly, ashamed of them. "They won't fit to put onto the table at any time, let alone on a Thanksgiving dinner-table." This was what she said to David the day before. And David answered: "Never mind, Ann, so the dinner is good."

But he did not fail to notice that her woman heart longed for something new and pretty, and was hurt by his seeming indifference, and he inwardly resolved—well, we shall see what he resolved. That afternoon David "harnessed up" and went to the village. Late at night he returned and came into the house shouldering a huge basket, which he put down at Ann's feet. Ann was dressing the poultry for the next day and never noticed that it was anything but corn-cobs, until David spoke.

"Here, Ann," said he, "is your new chiny. I reckon you'll be all right now."

Ann gave a little gasp and peeped cautiously into the basket. There it was. Just what she had so longed for. A complete dinner-set!

"Why, David!" she exclaimed. "Well, now—don't you—didn't—"

"Yes, I did," replied David, laughing. "I don't know's things'll taste any better served up in these than in the old ones; but we'll try 'em, any how."

Ann said not a word. But the look of satisfaction which shone in her face was reward enough for David.

Ann Hobbs never went to bed all that night! She made a brand-new dish-cloth, took down a shiny tin-pan, got out a new crash towel and washed those dishes, every one, and assigned each to its place among the glass and silverware in the old-fashioned, three-cornered china closet in the best room. The old closet had not been so gay for many a year. Ann stood off and marked the effect. Then she changed them about and looked again. Then she got out the fruit-cake and the pound-cake set them on glass cake-stands and stood them on the shelves, their polished, white surfaces looking like pyramids of snow amid the glittering silver and glassware. Ann looked and admired to her heart's content, and when she glanced up at the clock, behold, it was half-past four o'clock.

"My!" she exclaimed, half-aloud. "I never seen such a short night in all my days. Good land! I'll be sleepy's an owl all day, I'm 'fraid."

Then she brightened up the kitchen fire and called David, resolving, meanwhile, not to say to any one that she had not been to bed. David either guessed or joked about it, she never knew which, but his first words to her that morning were: "Did you set up with them dishes all night, Ann?"

Ann tossed her head and sniffed the air, but remained non-communicative.

"Now, girls," said Ann, after breakfast was over, "you must go to church with your father. Things is pretty well prepared, an' I can manage alone better if I had you at my heels."

So David and his comely daughters went to service.

Ann Hobbs was not in the least given to sentiment. But somehow, as she basted the turkey, and seasoned the soup, and washed the vegetables, her thoughts went wandering back to the old time when the Trumans "wa'n't no better'n other folks," and she thought of the many dinners they had prepared together on the occasions of raisings, and huskings, and thrashings. One especially she recalled. They had had a bad year of blight and drought combined, and there was scarcely a vegetable in the county. David had a "raisin'" that fall, and Mrs. Trumans came over to help Ann get the dinner.

"There's ten men, Laury," said Ann, and not a vegetable for 'em but some onions and carrots. What shall we do?"

"Haven't you a pumpkin, Ann?" asked Mrs. Trumans. "That would help out."

And they went out in the field to look for a pumpkin, and found instead a mammoth squash on a dried-up vine that no one knew anything about, and they brought it home in triumph. She wondered if Laura Trumans remembered how good that squash tasted.

"It is so!" responded David, feebly. Then, looking around the kitchen, he added: "Poor Ann! she combed so much of this day and them new dishes."

"Every minute counts, David," said Mr. Trumans, impatiently. "Hadn't we better go saddle the horses?"

David nodded sadly, and the two men started to the barn, followed by Mrs. Trumans and the girls.

About this time Ann awoke, her position on the stairs not being conducive to a long nap. She awoke with a confused idea of things in general, her first thought being about the dinner. But the darkness soon reminded her of her situation. She was still a prisoner in the barn-cell.

"Wonder how long I've been here?" she mused, as she tried to stand up. "I'm stiff as an oleo-horse; but I ain't a skeleton. I'm glad o' that. Oh, my! that turkey'll be cinders, and the vegetables burn black. I reckon they've all come and found out I'm missin'. I wonder if the girls found them pis? I put 'em on the top shelf of the butt'ry. Oh, dear! I shall die! I know I shall!"

But I'd just like to live long enough to tell David Hobbs what I think of a man that lets things go so loose like."

And poor Ann, in her desperation, pounded and called again.

"Mercy on us! what's that?" said David, turning around in a dazed way. "Them colts in the beatnest things to stand and kick that ever I seen."

"But colts don't holler!" cried Ellen, excitedly. "It's Mother Ann, and she's somewhere about the barn!"

And they went out in the field to look for a pumpkin, and found instead a mammoth squash on a dried-up vine that no one knew anything about, and they brought it home in triumph. She wondered if Laura Trumans remembered how good that squash tasted.

"It is so!" responded David, feebly. Then, looking around the kitchen, he added: "Poor Ann! she combed so much of this day and them new dishes."

"Every minute counts, David," said Mr. Trumans, impatiently. "Hadn't we better go saddle the horses?"

David nodded sadly, and the two men started to the barn, followed by Mrs. Trumans and the girls.

About this time Ann awoke, her position on the stairs not being conducive to a long nap. She awoke with a confused idea of things in general, her first thought being about the dinner. But the darkness soon reminded her of her situation. She was still a prisoner in the barn-cell.

"Wonder how long I've been here?" she mused, as she tried to stand up. "I'm stiff as an oleo-horse; but I ain't a skeleton. I'm glad o' that. Oh, my! that turkey'll be cinders, and the vegetables burn black. I reckon they've all come and found out I'm missin'. I wonder if the girls found them pis? I put 'em on the top shelf of the butt'ry. Oh, dear! I shall die! I know I shall!"

But I'd just like to live long enough to tell David Hobbs what I think of a man that lets things go so loose like."

And poor Ann, in her desperation, pounded and called again.

"Mercy on us! what's that?" said David, turning around in a dazed way. "Them colts in the beatnest things to stand and kick that ever I seen."

"But colts don't holler!" cried Ellen, excitedly. "It's Mother Ann, and she's somewhere about the barn!"

And they went out in the field to look for a pumpkin, and found instead a mammoth squash on a dried-up vine that no one knew anything about, and they brought it home in triumph. She wondered if Laura Trumans remembered how good that squash tasted.

"It is so!" responded David, feebly. Then, looking around the kitchen, he added: "Poor Ann! she combed so much of this day and them new dishes."

"Every minute counts, David," said Mr. Trumans, impatiently. "Hadn't we better go saddle the horses?"

David nodded sadly, and the two men started to the barn, followed by Mrs. Trumans and the girls.

About this time Ann awoke, her position on the stairs not being conducive to a long nap. She awoke with a confused idea of things in general, her first thought being about the dinner. But the darkness soon reminded her of her situation. She was still a prisoner in the barn-cell.

"Wonder how long I've been here?" she mused, as she tried to stand up. "I'm stiff as an oleo-horse; but I ain't a skeleton. I'm glad o' that. Oh, my! that turkey'll be cinders, and the vegetables burn black. I reckon they've all come and found out I'm missin'. I wonder if the girls found them pis? I put 'em on the top shelf of the butt'ry. Oh, dear! I shall die! I know I shall!"

But I'd just like to live long enough to tell David Hobbs what I think of a man that lets things go so loose like."

And poor Ann, in her desperation, pounded and called again.

"Mercy on us! what's that?" said David, turning around in a dazed way. "Them colts in the beatnest things to stand and kick that ever I seen."

"But colts don't holler!" cried Ellen, excitedly. "It's Mother Ann, and she's somewhere about the barn!"

And they went out in the field to look for a pumpkin, and found instead a mammoth squash on a dried-up vine that no one knew anything about, and they brought it home in triumph. She wondered if Laura Trumans remembered how good that squash tasted.

"It is so!" responded David, feebly. Then, looking around the kitchen, he added: "Poor Ann! she combed so much of this day and them new dishes."

"Every minute counts, David," said Mr. Trumans, impatiently. "Hadn't we better go saddle the horses?"

David nodded sadly, and the two men started to the barn, followed by Mrs. Trumans and the girls.

About this time Ann awoke, her position on the stairs not being conducive to a long nap. She awoke with a confused idea of things in general, her first thought being about the dinner. But the darkness soon reminded her of her situation. She was still a prisoner in the barn-cell.

"Wonder how long I've been here?" she mused, as she tried to stand up. "I'm stiff as an oleo-horse; but I ain't a skeleton. I'm glad o' that. Oh, my! that turkey'll be cinders, and the vegetables burn black. I reckon they've all come and found out I'm missin'. I wonder if the girls found them pis? I put 'em on the top shelf of the butt'ry. Oh, dear! I shall die! I know I shall!"

But I'd just like to live long enough to tell David Hobbs what I think of a man that lets things go so loose like."

And poor Ann, in her desperation, pounded and called again.

"Mercy on us! what's that?" said David, turning around in a dazed way. "Them colts in the beatnest things to stand and kick that ever I seen."

"But colts don't holler!" cried Ellen, excitedly. "It's Mother Ann, and she's somewhere about the barn!"

And they went out in the field to look for a pumpkin, and found instead a mammoth squash on a dried-up vine that no one knew anything about, and they brought it home in triumph. She wondered if Laura Trumans remembered how good that squash tasted.

"It is so!" responded David, feebly. Then, looking around the kitchen, he added: "Poor Ann! she combed so much of this day and them new dishes."

"Every minute counts, David," said Mr. Trumans, impatiently. "Hadn't we better go saddle the horses?"

David nodded sadly, and the two men started to the barn, followed by Mrs. Trumans and the girls.

About this time Ann awoke, her position on the stairs not being conducive to a long nap. She awoke with a confused idea of things in general, her first thought being about the dinner. But the darkness soon reminded her of her situation. She was still a prisoner in the barn-cell.

"Wonder how long I've been here?" she mused, as she tried to stand up. "I'm stiff as an oleo-horse; but I ain't a skeleton. I'm glad o' that. Oh, my! that turkey'll be cinders, and the vegetables burn black. I reckon they've all come and found out I'm missin'. I wonder if the girls found them pis? I put 'em on the top shelf of the butt'ry. Oh, dear! I shall die! I know I shall!"

But I'd just like to live long enough to tell David Hobbs what I think of a man that lets things go so loose like."

And poor Ann, in her desperation, pounded and called again.

"Mercy on us! what's that?" said David, turning around in a dazed way. "Them colts in the beatnest things to stand and kick that ever I seen."

"But colts don't holler!" cried Ellen, excitedly. "It

JANESVILLE BUSINESS DIRECTORY!

LEAF TOBACCO HOUSE.

Cigar Goods a Specialty. Plenty Storage Room.

O. D. ROWE,
J. NESVILLE - WISCONSIN
Dealer in Leaf Tobacco—Good Stock of Old Tobacco Always on Hand.
jedlawly

GENERAL BLACKSMITHING

W. H. GROVE,

Successor to E. E. Eddington, Jr.;
NORTH FIRST ST. - JANESEVILLE
All work done is warranted. First Class. A specialty made of Horse Shoes, Bridles, Saddles, Bits, etc. Also a good assortment of Trunks, Valises and Ladies' Satchels.
The best kind of Harness Oils always on hand.
Large stock of Blankets, Robes and Horse
Clothing.

H. W. HATHORN,
JANESEVILLE
General Blacksmith. Horse Shoeing a Specialty.
Repairing of all kinds on short notice and warranted. Prices as low as the lowest.
Shop on Franklin street, Corn Exchange Block.
murdawly

CARRIAGE PAINTING

J. B. LAGRANGE,

Would respectfully call attention to his extensive Painting Rooms on Bluff Street, in the rear of Dodge & Buchholz' shop, where he is prepared to do first class Carriage and Automatic painting of a superior workmanship. Give him a call.

jedlawly

HARNESS, BLANKETS, Etc.

JAMES A. FATHERS,

(SUCCESSOR TO CHAS. R. PAYNE.)
Court and Main Sts. - JANESEVILLE, Wis.
Manufactures and deals in Light and Heavy Harness, Saddles, Bits, Bridles, Tack, etc.
Also Comb's, etc. Also a good assortment of Trunks, Valises and Ladies' Satchels.
The best kind of Harness Oils always on hand.
Large stock of Blankets, Robes and Horse
Clothing.

W. M. SADDLER,
EAST MILWAUKEE ST. - JANESEVILLE
(Opera House Block.)
A large stock of First Class Harness and Trunks on Hand at Bottom Prices.

HAIR GOODS.

MRS. W. M. SADDLER,
EAST MILWAUKEE ST. - JANESEVILLE
(Opera House Block.)
Manufacturer and Dealer in Ladies' Hair Nets and all Kinds of Human Hair Goods.

MYERS HOUSE LIVERY.

C. W. JACKMAN, Proprietor,
EAST MILWAUKEE ST. - JANESEVILLE
Myers New Barn,
Hearse and Carriages for Funerals
Specialty.

B. B. BLANCHARD'S
New Collection, Real Estate and Loan Office.

gular Office Hours, 10 A. M. to 1 P. M. & 2 P. M. to, 4 P. M. and 5 P. M. for collection all notes, bills, accounts and judgments considered good, bad or indifferent, and for foreclosures all mortgages due or not due, and for all other business connected with a man's Clothing Store, Janesville, Wisconsin. All business intrusted to his care will be promptly attended to and satisfaction guaranteed.

INSURANCE.

JOHN G. SAXE,
Represents Some of the Most Substantial Fire
Insurance Companies of Europe and the United States.

Also Agent for the Eliza Life and the Mutual Protection Association of Wisconsin, the most reliable Insurance Association in the West. Has farms in Rock county and elsewhere to exchange for, property, and money to loan.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED

BITTERS

A remedy with such a reputation as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters deserves a fair trial. If you are dyspeptic, your malady will eventually yield to it; if you are feeble, lack flesh and feel lethargic, it will restore you to health; if you are constipated; if you are fatigued, it will refresh you;
if you are constipated, it will relieve, and if bilious, healthfully stimulate your liver. Don't despond, but make this effort in the right direction.

For sale by all Druggists and Dealers generally.

HOP BITTERS.

(A Medicine, not a Drink.)

CONTAINS

HOPS, BUCHU, MANDRAKE,

AND THE PUERUS AND BEST MEDICAL QUAL-
TIES OF ALL OTHER BITTERS.

THEY CURE

All Diseases of the Stomach, Bowels, Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Urinary Organs, Nervousness, Sleeplessness and especially Female Complaints.

$1000 IN GOLD.

Will be paid for a case they will not cure or help, or for any medical or surgical Injuries in them.

Ask your druggist for Hop Bitters and try them before you sleep. Tell no other.

D. C. is an absolute and irresistible cure for Drunkenness, use of opium, tobacco and alcohol.

SEND FOR CIRCULAR.

All above and by druggists.

Hop-Bitters Mfg. Co., Rochester, N. Y., vs. Toronto, Ont.

40th

Popular Monthly Drawing of the COMMONWEALTH DISTRIBUTION CO.

in the City of Louisville on Tuesday, January 31st, 1882

This drawing is open monthly Sundays except during the time of an Act of the General Assembly of Kentucky.

The United States Circuit Court on March 21st rendered the following decisions:

1. That the Commonwealth Distribution Company is legal.

2. Its drawings are fair.

The Company has now on hand a large reserve fund.

Read the list of prizes for the

JANUARY DRAWING.

1 Prize $300.00 100 prizes $10 each $1000

... 2000 " 1000 " 10 " 10000

... 5000 " 600 " 10 " 12000

10 prize $100 each $10000

20 prize $500 each $10000

Prize $200 each, " 1000

9 prize $100 each, " 900

1000 Prizes $2. Half Tickets $1.00

27 Tickets, $50

REMIT BY MONEY IN LETTER, OR BANK
MONEY ORDER, CHECK, DRAFT, OR LETTER
OF EXCHANG. NOT SEND BY REGISTERED
LETTER OR POSTFACE ORDER. Order
of $5 and up, by Express can be sent at our
expenses. Address to THE COMMONWEALTH
DISTRIBUTION CO., Louisville, Ky.

Box 200, M. R. BOARDMAN, 309 Broadway, New York.

self-decl-5swtswmly

1000 Prizes $2. Half Tickets $1.00

27 Tickets, $50

REMIT BY MONEY IN LETTER, OR BANK
MONEY ORDER, CHECK, DRAFT, OR LETTER
OF EXCHANG. NOT SEND BY REGISTERED
LETTER OR POSTFACE ORDER. Order
of $5 and up, by Express can be sent at our
expenses. Address to THE COMMONWEALTH
DISTRIBUTION CO., Louisville, Ky.

Box 200, M. R. BOARDMAN, 309 Broadway, New York.

self-decl-5swtswmly

1000 Prizes $2. Half Tickets $1.00

27 Tickets, $50

REMIT BY MONEY IN LETTER, OR BANK
MONEY ORDER, CHECK, DRAFT, OR LETTER
OF EXCHANG. NOT SEND BY REGISTERED
LETTER OR POSTFACE ORDER. Order
of $5 and up, by Express can be sent at our
expenses. Address to THE COMMONWEALTH
DISTRIBUTION CO., Louisville, Ky.

Box 200, M. R. BOARDMAN, 309 Broadway, New York.

self-decl-5swtswmly

1000 Prizes $2. Half Tickets $1.00

27 Tickets, $50

REMIT BY MONEY IN LETTER, OR BANK
MONEY ORDER, CHECK, DRAFT, OR LETTER
OF EXCHANG. NOT SEND BY REGISTERED
LETTER OR POSTFACE ORDER. Order
of $5 and up, by Express can be sent at our
expenses. Address to THE COMMONWEALTH
DISTRIBUTION CO., Louisville, Ky.

Box 200, M. R. BOARDMAN, 309 Broadway, New York.

self-decl-5swtswmly

1000 Prizes $2. Half Tickets $1.00

27 Tickets, $50

REMIT BY MONEY IN LETTER, OR BANK
MONEY ORDER, CHECK, DRAFT, OR LETTER
OF EXCHANG. NOT SEND BY REGISTERED
LETTER OR POSTFACE ORDER. Order
of $5 and up, by Express can be sent at our
expenses. Address to THE COMMONWEALTH
DISTRIBUTION CO., Louisville, Ky.

Box 200, M. R. BOARDMAN, 309 Broadway, New York.

self-decl-5swtswmly

1000 Prizes $2. Half Tickets $1.00

27 Tickets, $50

REMIT BY MONEY IN LETTER, OR BANK
MONEY ORDER, CHECK, DRAFT, OR LETTER
OF EXCHANG. NOT SEND BY REGISTERED
LETTER OR POSTFACE ORDER. Order
of $5 and up, by Express can be sent at our
expenses. Address to THE COMMONWEALTH
DISTRIBUTION CO., Louisville, Ky.

Box 200, M. R. BOARDMAN, 309 Broadway, New York.

self-decl-5swtswmly

1000 Prizes $2. Half Tickets $1.00

27 Tickets, $50

REMIT BY MONEY IN LETTER, OR BANK
MONEY ORDER, CHECK, DRAFT, OR LETTER
OF EXCHANG. NOT SEND BY REGISTERED
LETTER OR POSTFACE ORDER. Order
of $5 and up, by Express can be sent at our
expenses. Address to THE COMMONWEALTH
DISTRIBUTION CO., Louisville, Ky.

Box 200, M. R. BOARDMAN, 309 Broadway, New York.

self-decl-5swtswmly

1000 Prizes $2. Half Tickets $1.00

27 Tickets, $50

REMIT BY MONEY IN LETTER, OR BANK
MONEY ORDER, CHECK, DRAFT, OR LETTER
OF EXCHANG. NOT SEND BY REGISTERED
LETTER OR POSTFACE ORDER. Order
of $5 and up, by Express can be sent at our
expenses. Address to THE COMMONWEALTH
DISTRIBUTION CO., Louisville, Ky.

Box 200, M. R. BOARDMAN, 309 Broadway, New York.

self-decl-5swtswmly

1000 Prizes $2. Half Tickets $1.00

27 Tickets, $50

REMIT BY MONEY IN LETTER, OR BANK
MONEY ORDER, CHECK, DRAFT, OR LETTER
OF EXCHANG. NOT SEND BY REGISTERED
LETTER OR POSTFACE ORDER. Order
of $5 and up, by Express can be sent at our
expenses. Address to THE COMMONWEALTH
DISTRIBUTION CO., Louisville, Ky.

Box 200, M. R. BOARDMAN, 309 Broadway, New York.

self-decl-5swtswmly

1000 Prizes $2. Half Tickets $1.00

27 Tickets, $50

REMIT BY MONEY IN LETTER, OR BANK
MONEY ORDER, CHECK, DRAFT, OR LETTER
OF EXCHANG. NOT SEND BY REGISTERED
LETTER OR POSTFACE ORDER. Order
of $5 and up, by Express can be sent at our
expenses. Address to THE COMMONWEALTH
DISTRIBUTION CO., Louisville, Ky.

Box 200, M. R. BOARDMAN, 309 Broadway, New York.

self-decl-5swtswmly

1000 Prizes $2. Half Tickets $1.00

27 Tickets, $50

REMIT BY MONEY IN LETTER, OR BANK
MONEY ORDER, CHECK, DRAFT, OR LETTER
OF EXCHANG. NOT SEND BY REGISTERED
LETTER OR POSTFACE ORDER. Order
of $5 and up, by Express can be sent at our
expenses. Address to THE COMMONWEALTH
DISTRIBUTION CO., Louisville, Ky.

Box 200, M. R. BOARDMAN, 309 Broadway, New York.

self-decl-5swtswmly

1000 Prizes $2. Half Tickets $1.00

27 Tickets, $50

REMIT BY MONEY IN LETTER, OR BANK
MONEY ORDER, CHECK, DRAFT, OR LETTER
OF EXCHANG. NOT SEND BY REGISTERED
LETTER OR POSTFACE ORDER. Order
of $5 and up, by Express can be sent at our
expenses. Address to THE COMMONWEALTH
DISTRIBUTION CO., Louisville, Ky.

Box 200, M. R. BOARDMAN, 309 Broadway, New York.

self-decl-5swtswmly

1000 Prizes $2. Half Tickets $1.00

27 Tickets, $50

REMIT BY MONEY IN LETTER, OR BANK
MONEY ORDER, CHECK, DRAFT, OR LETTER
OF EXCHANG. NOT SEND BY REGISTERED
LETTER OR POSTFACE ORDER. Order
of $5 and up, by Express can be sent at our
expenses. Address to THE COMMONWEALTH
DISTRIBUTION CO., Louisville, Ky.

Box 200, M. R. BOARDMAN, 309 Broadway, New York.

self-decl-5swtswmly

THE GAZETTE.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 1.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

RAILROAD TIME TABLE.

	Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul.	Trains leave.
For Chicago and East, via Beloit.	11:00 A. M.
Brockford and Elgin.	7:15 P. M.
For Milwaukee, Chicago and East.	9:30 A. M.
For Madison, Chicago and East.	12:45 P. M.
For Beloit, Rock Island and South West.	11:00 A. M.
For Beloit, Rock Island and South West.	7:15 P. M.
For Monroe, Mineral Point, Shullsburg and Platteville.	8:15 A. M.
For Monroe, Mineral Point, Shullsburg and Platteville.	7:30 P. M.
For Madison, St. Paul and North West.	9:30 A. M.
For Brodhead and Albany.	4:30 P. M.
For Brodhead and Albany.	2:25 P. M.
For Brodhead and Albany.	7:30 P. M.
Trains arrive.
From Chicago and East, via Beloit.	9:15 A. M.
Brockford and Elgin.	3:27 P. M.
From Milwaukee, Chicago and East.	5:30 P. M.
From Beloit, Rock Island and South West.	7:30 P. M.
From Monroe, Mineral Point, Shullsburg and Platteville.	9:15 A. M.
From Monroe, Mineral Point, Shullsburg and Platteville.	7:30 P. M.
From Brodhead and Albany.	2:25 P. M.
From Brodhead and Albany.	9:30 A. M.
From Madison, St. Paul and North West.	12:45 P. M.
Arrive.	1:45 P. M.
Depart.	8:45 P. M.
GONG SOUTH.
Arrive.	12:55 P. M.
Depart.	7:30 A. M.
Arrive.	1:40 P. M.
Depart.	8:45 P. M.
DAY EXPRESS.
Fond du Lac passenger.....	10:25 A. M.
GONG SOUTH.
Arrive.	12:55 P. M.
Depart.	7:30 A. M.
Arrive.	1:40 P. M.
Depart.	8:45 P. M.
AFTON BRANCH.
Arrive.	9:20 A. M.
From Afton and North, passenger.....	10:25 A. M.
From Brockford and South, passenger.	3:15 P. M.
From Afton, and North and South, mixed.....	8:40 P. M.
For Beloit, mixed.....	7:35 A. M.
For Beloit, Brockford and Chicago, passenger.....	9:40 A. M.
For Madison, Winona, St. Paul and all points in Minnesota and Dakota, passenger.....	2:30 P. M.
For Afton, mixed, connecting North and South.....	6:40 P. M.
M. HUGGETT, Gen'l Pass'r.
W. H. STENNELL,
General Passenger Agent.

BUSINESS & PLEASURE.

LOST—A large Newfoundland dog disappeared from my house on the morning of January 30th, 1882, with black curly hair, and a white spot on his breast. His name is Romeo. Any one letting me know where he can be found, will be suitably rewarded. JOHN R. BENNETT.

Janesville, Jan. 31, 1882.

HAS NO SUPERIOR.—Edward E. Chase, sole agent for the non-elasic suspender, will call on the people of Janesville and show up the superiority of this celebrated suspender. Rooms at Myers house— Sole agent for the State of Wisconsin. Agents wanted.

We trust the public have already learned the Chicago Book Company's prices on books; and they may feel assured no bookseller of this city can or will undersell them.

GEORGE STOCKTON'S Auction of Dry Goods—The balance of the stock, Dress Goods, Cambrics, Ginghams, Cassimeres, Cottonades, Flannels, Hosiery, Ribbons, Gloves, Laces etc, will be sold at auction, commencing Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and continuing each afternoon and evening until sold, sales at 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 p. m. This will be a chance to buy goods at your own price.

GEORGE STOCKTON.

PARTIES wishing ice can be supplied by leaving their orders at No. 2 Engine house.

ROOMS TO RENT—Four good rooms to rent over Griswold's Hardware store. For particulars apply to John Watson.

$100 REWARD FOR A BETTER REMEDY.—Williams' Indian Pile Ointment is a sure cure for Piles. See advertisement in another column. Price $1.00.

STOP THAT COUGH—Moore's Pectoral Postetter are warranted to cure any case. Try them. Price 25 cents per bottle.

FOR RENT—The east half of the double brick house on Court Street. For particulars inquire of George Barnes, or at the Gazette office.

FOR SALE—$1200 will buy a large house and lot, with good barn, on South Main street. Small payment down, long time on balance. Inquire at Gazette office.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Ladies' and Gents' Stationery.

For a good article of Writing Paper, Envelopes, Pens, Ink, &c., at reasonable prices, call at Sutherland's Bookstore.

$1500 per year can be easily made at home working for F. G. Rideout & Co., 10 Barclay Street, New York. Send for their catalogue and all particulars.

On Thirty Days' Trial.

We will send Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro-therapeutic Apparatus for Electric Treatment for thirty days to young men and older persons who are afflicted with Nervous Debility, Loss of Vitality, etc., guaranteeing speedy relief and recovery. Address Dr. Dye, 10 Barclay Street, New York. Also for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Paralysis, Liver and Kidney difficulties, Ruptures, and many other diseases. Illustrated pamphlet sent free. Address Voluta Belt Co., Marshall, Mich.

ocet2dawly

Mother! Mother!! Mother!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere 25 cents a bottle. marlbd-mon-wed-sat-33wly

POPULAR TONIC.

For Weak Lungs and Consumption. No preparation ever introduced to the American public, for the relief and cure of Coughs, Cold, Short Throats, Delicate Constitutions, Weakness of Lungs or Gonorrhœa, in the incipient or advanced stages of the disease, has ever met with the endorsements of physicians or patients as the celebrated "Tolu, Rock and Rye." The repeated and unanimous opinion of every physician is that the best evidence of its real merit. Letters and testimonials from every quarter of the country, attesting the stimulating and healing effects, are in possession of the proprietors, and are ready to be shown to the most skeptical reader of its intrinsic virtues. Further commendation is unnecessary and superfluous, as the article, having a pleasant taste and agreeable smell, will be a pure tonic and specific for all diseases, having pulmonary trouble of the relief to be derived by the use of Tolu, Rock and Rye.—Chicago Times.

BRIEFLETS.

—February first.
—The days are ten hours and ten minutes in length.
—I. C. Brownell has been spending a day or two in Chicago.
—To-morrow will be Candlemas day—watch the bears and ground-hogs.
—The Liliputians give a performance in Beloit to-night and to-morrow night.
—Sheriff Skavlem captured two of the tramp fraternity last night, and offices McGinley one.

—B. D. Wixom, of the town of Fulton, sold $808.95 worth of tobacco from four acres, and got his cash.

—To-morrow being the feast of the Purification, or Candlemas Day, mass will be celebrated in St. Patrick's church at nine o'clock a. m.

—Fred Sonneborn is now presenting his customers with a handsome pocket comb and case—with his card printed in gold on the back—a very unique way of advertising his establishment.

—Drs. Henry Palmer and J. B. Whitling were in Madison yesterday, as witnesses in a suit in which President Cornwall, of Albion, was the plaintiff, and Dr. C. R. Head, the defendant.

—Mrs. George W. Fleming, of Chicago, and Miss Sallie Pinning, of Oshkosh, are visiting Miss Cook and Miss Matie Holmes, daughter of Rev. D. J. Holmes, at his residence, 27 Jackson street.

—Dr. J. B. Whitling, of Janesville, long a member of the State institution for the blind, registers at the Park. He is here on an important law case before the Dane county circuit court.—Madison Democrat.

—The remains of the late Mrs. Sarah A. Goodwin, daughter of Patrick Burns, arrived from Chicago on the 1:30 train and were immediately taken to St. Patrick's Church, where the funeral services were held.

—An auction sale of dry goods is a very rare occurrence in Janesville, and we advise the readers of the Gazette to bear in mind the auction sale of George Stockton. He is closing out his entire stock at the drop of the hammer.

—A social party will be given by the Janesville Grange at grange hall, town of Janesville, on Friday evening Feb. 3d. Tuckwood's band furnishes the music, and all who attend will have a pleasant time. There is no mistake about this.

—James Jones, who lives out in the country about seven miles, came to town yesterday, got pretty thoroughly drunk, and at midnight while prowling about in an alley on the West side, dislocated his shoulder. He was taken to Dr. Palmer's office and the dislocation reduced.

—Prof. Hawhurst's "Original and Colossal Panorama illustrating Bunyan's World Renowned Allegory of the Pilgrim's Progress" is to occupy Lapping Music Hall, Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, February 16th, 17th, and 18th, and Saturday afternoon matinee for children.

—A number of our military men went to Madison this afternoon to attend a meeting of the officers of the Wisconsin National Guard which will be held in that city this evening. Among those who have gone from here are Colonel Britton, Adjutant Newman, Captain LaGrange, and Lieutenant Glass.

—Miss Anne Baker was taken to the insane asylum at Madison, to-day, for treatment. Miss Baker has been troubled with a brain disease for some time, and her friends are in hopes that the treatment she will receive at the asylum will restore her reason and health. She was accompanied by Sheriff Skavlem and her two brothers.

—Fred Sonneborn, the Star Clothier, now makes the important announcement to the public, that he proposes to close out the remainder of his stock of winter goods at actual cost, knocking all discounts heretofore offered, out of time. He adopts this plan that the public may be benefitted, and at the same time make room for a new stock of spring goods.

—Death is making a terrible visitation upon the family of Mr. Henry Jones, at Emerald Grove. Two weeks ago his daughter Caroline, died of typhoid fever, and last week his wife died of the same disease, and now comes the intelligence that his son Charles, aged 19 years, is also dead, death occurring last night. The funeral will be held on Thursday at 11 o'clock.

—The annual catalogue of D. M. Ferry & Co., of Detroit, has been received. It is one of the completest seed catalogues published in this country, and in addition to that, it is one of the most richly illustrated books on horticulture ever issued in the West. The firm of D. M. Ferry & Co. is now the largest of American seed growers, and has met with a success which is nothing less than marvelous. This is the result of selling reliable seeds and plants and thereby gain the confidence of the public.

—Rev. Father Cleary, of Kenosha, gave a lecture in St. Patrick's church, last evening, under the auspices of the St. Patrick's T. A. & B. Society, on the subject of "Temperance." The church was over-crowded with anxious listeners, and over three hundred were unable to gain admittance. The eloquent lecturer evidently made a lasting impression upon his hearers, as many, young and old, went forward after the close of the Reverend gentleman's remarks, and took the pledge of total abstinence from Rev. Father McGinnity. All present were highly edified, and hope to have the pleasure of again greeting Father Cleary in Janesville. The exercises were appropriately closed by a Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

—The WEATHER.

REPORTED BY PRENTICE & EVANSON, DRUGGISTS.

The thermometer this morning at seven o'clock stood 25 degrees above zero, and at one o'clock, at 37. Clear. For the corresponding time last year the thermometer indicated 3 and 10 above zero.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1, 1 a. m.—The following are the indications for to-day:

Lower lake region—Fair weather, westerly winds, slight changes in temperature.

DESERVING ARTICLES ARE ALWAYS APPRECIATED. The exceptional cleanliness of Parker's Hair Balsam makes it popular. Gray hairs are impossible with its occasional use.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a small addressed envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, New York City.

It is the HEIGHT OF FOLLY to wait until you are in bed with disease you may not get over for months, when you can be cured during the early symptoms.

Great Physician's Ginger Tonic.

We have known the sickest families made the best of use of this pure medicine.—Observer.

GOUGH NOT COMING.

The Severe Illness of the Great Temperance Orator at Beloit.

It will be a disappointment to many persons in Janesville to read the announcement that John B. Gough will not speak to-night at the Congregational church. This afternoon Mr. Moseley received the following telegram:

Beloit, February 1.—Mr. Gough is very ill, and can not possibly speak to-night. Must cancel or postpone the lecture. Mrs. John B. Gough.

The worst disappointment will be to the many who will come from the country to attend the lecture. It is known that very many will come from Johnson, Emerald Grove, Milton, Evansville and other places. To prevent this disappointment as much as possible to persons living away from the city, Mr. Moseley sent telegrams to several stations announcing the illness of Mr. Gough. It is not known at present whether the engagement will be cancelled altogether or the lecture postponed. Persons who have purchased reserved seats can have their money refunded by applying at the store of Prentice & Evanson.

Janesville Knights Visiting Monocroe.

A short time ago the Knights Templar of Janesville received a cordial invitation from the Sir Knights at Monroe, to attend a reception, banquet and dance at that place which was announced for last night. The invitation was accepted, and forty-seven members of the Janesville Commandery No. 2 went to Monroe last evening and participated in the festivities provided by their Monroe brethren, Those who went from the city were:

A. W. Baldwin, F. A. Bennett, C. E. Church, C. F. Crossett, G. H. Farnham, G. H. Lovell, S. S. Lovjoy, W. F. Carle, G. H. Chesebro, J. F. Drake, A. A. Dresser, C. E. Ford, G. O. Pietsch, J. Heath, W. G. Hawes, G. M. Hanchett, G. C. Ward, G. A. Wisc.

Those members of Janesville Commandery No. 2, who reside outside the city, and who also attended the reception and banquet are as follows:

Dr. C. M. Smith, T. T. Crago, D. C. Griswold, H. G. Vanwagenen, D. Johnson, G. W. Doty, Ray Gilman, A. S. Douglas, C. B. Evans, N. B. Treat, G. O. Pietsch, Dr. J. S. Reynolds, C. J. Sally, Wm. M. Wright, F. A. Wise.

The following ladies, wives of Sir Knights, were also in attendance: Mrs. A. W. Baldwin, Mrs. C. E. Church, Mrs. B. F. Crossett, Mrs. O. C. Ford, Mrs. A. S. Lee, Mrs. W. F. Carle, Mrs. G. W. Hawes, Mrs. F. A. Bennett, Mrs. John Heath, Mrs. D. C. Ward, Mrs. W. C. Holmes, Mrs. G. M. Hanchett, and Mrs. C. E. Ranous.

The Sir Knights were most cordially received and magnificently entertained. The reception was held at Turner's hall, and some 500 persons were present. The Janesville Knights with one accord pronounced the reception and banquet one of the most brilliant, successful and pleasant they ever attended.

Dr. C. M. Smith, T. T. Crago, D. C. Griswold, H. G. Vanwagenen, D. Johnson, G. W. Doty, Ray Gilman, A. S. Douglas, C. B. Evans, N. B. Treat, G. O. Pietsch, Dr. J. S. Reynolds, C. J. Sally, Wm. M. Wright, F. A. Wise.

The thing desired found at last. Ask druggists for Rough on Rats. It clears out rats, mice, roaches, flies, bedbugs, 15c.

SKINNY MEN.